American Classic

The Friends of the Salisbury Public Library
Present the 2017 Author Series

New England's General Stores:

Exploring an AMERICAN CLASSIC by

Ted Reinstein

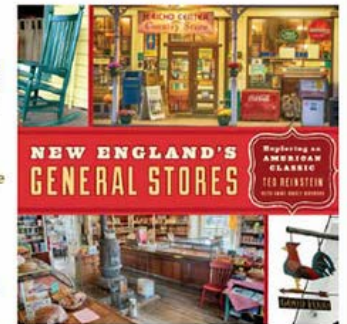

Thursday, November 9, 2017 6:30 pm

In this new book, co-authors Ted Reinstein and former ABC journalist Anne-Marie Dornig profile some of New England's most beloved and longtime landmark stores, many of which have played out a real-life "Rocky," rising up from the retail mat against seemingly overwhelming odds. It turns out that neighbors actually miss meeting up in the neighborhood. When it comes to a genuine gathering place, Costco doesn't really cut it. But a general store still does. New England's General Stores: Exploring an American Classic looks at how, where, and why this has all happened, by focusing on individual historic stores and their still-unfolding stories.

Followed by Q & A and book-selling/signing.

Ted Reinstein has been a reporter for "Chronicle", WCVB-TV/Boston's award-winning - and America's longest-running, locally-produced - nightly news magazine since 1997. In addition, he is a regular contributor for the station's political roundtable show and writes a weekly opinion column. He lives just west of Boston with his wife and two daughters. He is also the author of Wicked Pissed and New England Notebook.
